Merry Christmas.

Plenty of Christmas toys for children left at Hoffman & Vetter's.

Spreckelsville mill started to grinding last Monday morning.

Send your watches and jewelry to M. R. Counter of Honolulu for repairs.

The recent rains have proved a great blessing to the young cane on Maui.

The lagoon back of Kahului is full of wild ducks, and good shooting can be had.

School vacation begins to day and last two weeks, or till January 7, 1901.

Lively bidding is expected for mail contracts, especially between Wailuku and Lahaina.

The first installment of drugs for the new Maui Drug Co. arrived on the Metha Nelson.

LOST.—A bunch of 9 keys, between the post office and school. Return to this office.

The nights in Kula have been very cold this week, and even Wailuku and Kahului have felt shivery.

Showery weather this week keeps the young cane and Kula pasturage as green as a water melon.

Ex-queen Liluokalani and Prince David were passengers on the Kinau this week, bound for Hilo to spend Christmas.

Don't forget the social at the residence of George Hons tonight. Let's all go and have a jolly good time. Every body welcome.

If you want to buy anything from a four-in-hand to a baby carriage, write to Gus Schumann, or better still, reserve your order till he comes over early in January.

The monthly meeting of the Makawao Teachers' Local Circle has been postponed to the first week of next term on account of the almost impossible condition of the roads.

One week from today Mr. L. von Tempsky will hold an auction sale of the Pulehuiki land, at Paia Plantation Store. This land will be sold in lots of three to ten acres, for small ranches.

The mills at Wailuku Plantation, Spreckelsville, Paia and Hamakua-poko have all started up this week on the season's run. Some of the mills will temporarily run on day shifts only, on account of scarcity of labor.

The teachers of Kealahou school in Kula are teaching their children patriotism. Every morning before school begins the boys and girls fall in line to the music of the flute. When in position, one of them marches to the front with an American flag which is formally saluted, and the exercises close by singing "America" in the open air.

Company I, N. G. H. T.

In obedience to Orders No. 10 and 11, issued from the Adjutant General's office, Major John Pratt came to Wailuku, and on Thursday evening enlisted and swore in the members of Company I.

The leading young men of Wailuku have taken great interest in the matter of organizing the company, and as a result its ranks contain the flower of Wailuku's chivalry. Forty five men were sworn in, and several were unavoidably absent who will add their names to the roll later.

Upon being sworn in, the company proceeded to elect a captain, and a first and second lieutenant.

For the office of Captain, J. N. K. Keola, W. G. Scott, George Cummings and George B. Schrader were placed in nomination. Messrs Scott Cummings and Schrader withdrew their names, and Captain Keola was elected by acclamation. His election was greeted with a round of applause, and in response to calls, he modestly and gracefully thanked the members for the honor conferred upon him. In a few well chosen words he impressed upon his men the necessity for a prompt and ready obedience to orders, and predicted that Company I would become a credit to Maui and to the National Guards of Hawaii.

There were four nominees for First Lieutenant, but two withdrew leaving Dr. Boote and W. E. Bal to contest for the honor. The tally sheets balanced up to the very last vote but one, where they stood a tie. Dr. Boote received the odd ballot and was declared elected First Lieutenant.

George Cummings made easy running for the place of Second Lieutenant and won hands down.

The officers elect will receive due notice to appear before the examining board in Honolulu to be examined as to their qualifications, prior to receiving their commissions.

The rank and file of the company is as follows:

Captain J. N. K. Keola.
1st Lieut. W. R. Boote.
2nd Lieut. George Cummings.
Privates:

Moses Kauhiamahu, Jno. Makalua, Harry Bailey, M. C. Ross, G. B. Schrader, Robt. Nawahine, A. Jackson, L. Rose, M. Dutro, Wm. H. Kahalemauna, Ed. Cockett, A. Dutro, A. B. Naone, J. F. Welsh, H. Nishwitz, K. Kamukana, Wm. Dedrick, Jas. Smith, W. Crowell, J. Ferreira, Jr., W. E. Bal, J. P. Silva, W. H. King, Hans Amundson, C. Sardinia, C. F. Scimson, A. do Rego, F. Scholtz, J. K. Ballay, Jno. Brown Jr., M. Fustino, J. Miranda, C. J. Brown, Chas. Crowell, S. B. Harry, J. D. Freitas, A. Garcia, W. T. Robinson, J. K. Waiwaiole, Jno. Lewis, M. P. Waiwaiole, W. G. Scott, A. G. Gomes, Peter Hall, A. Nawahine, M. Cardez.

Wailuku's Magistrate Resigns.

The resignation of the first district magistrate of Wailuku has been forwarded to Governor Dole, to take effect on the first of January, after which time he will open and conduct the "Wailuku Collecting & Business Agency." His successor will probably be Judge W. A. McKay of Wailuku.

We lay aside the ermine with a sigh of relief. No more will it be our painful duty to sock it to the celestial pipe hitter. Never more will we apply a cooling two dollar fine to the fevered brow of the swipe fiend. For the last time have we bulged out the public treasury with fat liquor dealing fines. Henceforth we shall wend our way peacefully along paths where our nerves will not be jarred by sudden contact with the invidious search warrant or the deadly mittimus, and hereafter when we meet a gentleman in particular raiment on the street, industriously pounding rocks, we can look him straight in the eyes and say, "shake not your gory locks at me, nor say that I did it."

MEETING NOTICE.

Our Honolulu Letter.

The Humphreys-Frear spat has occupied the attention of Honolulu citizens for several days and when it is boiled down it amounts to little or nothing.

Judge Humphreys' rule is perfectly correct although it will make great trouble outside of Honolulu, as none of the expenses can be paid until vouchers have been approved and warrants issued thereon. It results in jurors and witnesses waiting a month or six weeks for their pay.

It is difficult for a layman to see why Judge Frear is brought into the matter by Judge Humphreys. As far as the public can see, all that he has done is to write to Judge Little that "Judge Humphreys order was all right and that the course proposed should be taken as a matter of correct practice independently of that order."

It reminds me of the story of the Ohio woman who was constantly finding fault with her own cooking. One day a guest agreed with her, saying "yes the bread was rather poor and heavy." "No such thing! You never ate lighter or better bread in your life and you know it!" was the angry reply. Judge Humphreys does not seem to like to be agreed with.

It is hoped that the batch of Porto Ricans which is on its way to the Islands is not so bad as represented. The dispatch on the subject from New Orleans may have been inspired by a labor agent of some kind. Mr. S. T. Alexander made a trip to Porto Rico last year for the Planters' Association and reported that there were plenty of good able bodied laborers to be got. Either the person intrusted with collecting the laborers has not done his duty or the telegraphic report is wrong. We surely need labor badly enough and it is a pity too.

I saw attorney A. F. Tavares flying around yesterday with an anxious look on his face as though he had matters of great weight to attend to. He goes back tonight on the Claudine.

Mr. Antone de Souza of Kaupakulua School formerly, and now of Moiliili night school, goes up on the Claudine to spend the Christmas vacation. By the same steamer Miss Hannestad, Miss Edith Gilhus and Miss Ethel Taylor return to their homes for the holidays.

You growl about the roads on Maui, but with a few exceptions they are as bad here. When one gets away from the main streets, which are usually in a congested state on account of vehicles and sewer work and rapid transit construction, the roads are decidedly rocky. I suppose the Government is hard up for cash until the legislature meets but a little temporary work might be put here and there to great advantage.

HIGH SPY.

Personal Mention.

Mr. David Center, has been quite sick for the past week.

Dr. R. I. Moore, the Honolulu dentist now on a professional visit to Hana, will leave for a visit to the Coast shortly.

Six California miners arrived on the Metha Nelson to enter the employ of Mr. Carl Waldeyer who is engaged in tunneling Iao Valley.

Miss Eliza dos Reis, one of the teachers at Paia school, passed through Wailuku on Tuesday night to take the Kinau for Hawaii where she will spend her vacation.

Mr. C. W. Baldwin, school inspector, who has been on Hawaii for several months past, came over last Saturday morning to spend Christmas at home.

Mr. Henry Piemer, formerly head luna at the Wailuku Plantation, and now head luna at Wainalua Plantation, Oahu, came over on Wednesday's Claudine to spend a short vacation at Wailuku.

Mr. A. Zuckerman, representing Neustadter Bros. of San Francisco, left for Hawaii on Tuesday night's Kinau. This will be Mr. Zuckerman's last trip for this house, as he has severed his connection with the firm in order to engage in business for himself in San Francisco.
